

WE NOMINATE

The 17 Trustees of Princeton Hospital — a distinguished group of dedicated public servants — who once again have accepted the challenge of meeting urgent community needs. Over a span of weeks the board of the 46-year old Hospital is raising by public subscription some $616,000. This is the amount the Hospital must have in order to move forward with its $2.5 million "J Building," the basic element in the Hospital's long-range plans and providing facilities (42 additional beds as well as enlarged x-ray and laboratory departments) demanded now by an area in which hospital admissions have increased well over 300% in two decades.

Continuing and strengthening the distinctively American tradition of unsung and unsalaried volunteers in posts of public trust, these 16 men and a lone representative of the dominant sex, Mrs. Hans G. Bauer, are devoting 100's of hours to the "crash campaign" and yet feel they are only doing what they ordinarily do, year upon year, in "discharging our obligations to Princeton, to the Hospital and to the Trustees who have preceded us." One member of the Board notes: "The era of the 'letterhead trustee' disappeared years ago. It is our responsibility to foster around-the-calendar community understanding and support for the Hospital's services and program."

Headed by George W. Conover, 47-year old businessman with an evangelical zeal for his hospital mission, and with Mayors Henry S. Patterson II and Carl C. Schafer Jr. effectively representing the Borough and Township, the Board draws its membership from a half-dozen occupational categories, ranging from the professions and Princeton-based businesses to nationally known enterprises. For instance, its liaison with the world of medicine, beyond its close working relationships with the Hospital Staff, is provided by Dr. Robert

S. Garber, Director of the Carrier Clinic, and Dr. Aims C. McGuinness, Director of the New York Academy of Medicine.

The quarterback for the Resources Committee, meeting almost every day of the week and tapping non-Trustee volunteers rather than employing an "outside" fund-raising counsel, is Frank E. Taplin, an alumnus of Princeton, Oxford and Yale and board chairman of Scurry-Rainbow Oil, Ltd. Associated with Taplin, 50-year old native of Cleveland, Ohio, are insurance executive Richard W. Baker Jr., bankers James Carey and Richard G. Macgill, industrialists Frederick P. Lawrence and Laurence C. Ward Jr., and two senior members of the University, Leslie L. Vivian Jr., administrator of research programs, and John C. Whitwell, a brilliant chemical engineer.

Other pivotal figures in the Board's deliberations, as it wrestles with a $14.7 million Building Fund, including a proposed mortgage of $1,450,000, are former Township Magistrate James S. Hill, an officer of Johnson and Johnson; Samuel Frothingham, Assistant to the University's Manager of Construction; and Charles H. Magers, whose contributions have included professional decorating services for three of the Hospital's major components. One measure of the burdens the Trustees are shouldering is an annual budget of some $3.9 million, roughly 15 times the equivalent figure in 1916 and a third again as much as the school budget adopted last week by the Borough's Board of Education.

For working toward "the fullest development of Princeton Hospital's potential for all health care"; for determining the gaps that need filling and then doing everything within their power to fill them; for generating the kind of uplifting leadership that is so vital to Princeton's well-being; these 17 are our nominees as

FOUR FATEFUL HOURS
The future course of Borough and Township public schools is balanced as delicately as jeweler's scale upon the outcome of Tuesday's election.
Four months of controversy
following the October 7 school regionalization defeat will be consulted into four hours' voting, and the heaviest turnout within memory is predicted.

"Our position," says H. Philip Minis, co-chairman of Citizens for Borough Schools which supports the Buckland-Lively-Wagner ticket, "is that if our three candidates are elected, the Township will be willing to work with the Borough school board. The vote would be a mandate to create a united kindergarten through 12th grade system. Township certainly won't be willing to work with the end-dates who defeated merger in October."

On the other side of the scale, Orren Jack Turner of Serve Our Schools which backs the Carothers-Cook-Edwards slate, comments, "Three new members of the school board regardless of their individual preferences, would be moving to represent the community, which the present board does not. The make-up of the board should change substantially so that new and more objective decisions can be made."

Weighing the Vote. SOS feels that the October 7 defeat of school regionalization accurately reflects Borough opinion, CBS disagrees. Tuesday's vote will furnish proof.

The Buckland-Lively-Wagner ticket supports total merger. Their opposition says there are a number of alternatives to be explored, short of total merger. If the Buckland-Lively-Wagner ticket is elected, the Borough school board stand on merger will remain 7-2, but the popular vote will express a mandate to re-run the merger referendum. A new board president is in the offfing, and the day report from the Township citizens' committee on the hard costs of a Township high school may never need to be made.

If the Carothers-Cook-Edwards slate wins, the board will be divided 5-4 against total merger, the popular vote confirming the October 7 defeat.

If the Borough is to go it alone, it will ultimately find itself without any sending districts, as I understand, except Rocky Hill and Pittsboro," Mr. Minis says, "and we will have about 600 students in a high school built for 1,500—with a debt still to be paid off. That means taxes shined go up. And taxes will go up for the Township, because it will have to support a brand new K-12 system."

SOS, Mr. Turner states, believes that the K-12 relationship has been to the vote and that there are "too many flaws for the satisfaction of the Borough. There are six to eight other possibilities for taking care of the situation. The Blue Book was one plan only. Among them he lists a regionalized high school, which might be directed by a board appointed by the Borough and Township school boards. Mr. Turner called this "administrative monstrosity."

A regionalized high school, Citizens point out, would deprive the Borough of its present K-12 system, which is causing a drop in the Township's goal of a K-12 system. SOS believes that the Township has not made its rejections of a regionalized high school clear.

Both sides comment upon the fact that the Township voter has supported K-12 regionalization with the Borough but has not yet voted on the issue of a Township high school.

Swing Vote. Both camps believe that residents traditionally disassociated with the public school systems, (those with children in private schools or with grown children), will choose themselves to vote on Tuesday. SOS says this group feels a mandate to vote when major issues are involved. CBS believes it's more a matter of taxes.

The election is expected to bring out a larger-than-usual vote from the Princeton graduate students and seminarians who are eligible. "You can always tell when the seminary vote is coming out," Mr. Turner says.

"The Family." The pro-merger slate believes in the similarities of Borough and Township, pointing to a survey taken during the merger study of parents' backgrounds and aims for their children.

SOS disagrees. "People keep talking about merger," Mr. Turner says, "that we are all in the same family, but if we are all in the same family, we cannot marry. It is more like two brothers than husband and wife."

"Traditions are different, thinking is different. . . Our kids play together, it is true, but I don't think they can marry the two districts, especially when the Township philosophy is so different, especially when the Township tax picture is so different."

Mr. Minis of CBS counters "I think a lot of people didn't understand the situation in October, didn't understand the intricacies, but their taxes are involved. This goes way behind interest in education."

"The school debt figure was completely unclear in October. A lot of people thought that the Borough would be turning over a greater value to this marriage than the Township would. The actual fact is that the Borough has the larger school debt." CBS figures are $330,000 for the Borough, $530,000 Township.

"This has far-reaching ramifications," Mr. Minis adds. "A realtor reported that immediately after the referendum several clients looking for houses in either Borough or Township called up and queried the Borough, the future of both taxes and the school system look very uncertain."

Counter arguments called from "realtors' comments include, "Nobody wants his child to go to a school of noods through a new factory" and "Continued on Page 2"

This Time, the Light Is Red!

In the weeks that have followed defeat of the school merger referendum last October, the spotlight has turned its bright rays on all parts of the Princeton community to reveal the social developments which follow any final decision to build a Township high school. Recorded in full in this and previous issues of TOWN TOPICS, they need no detailed repetition here.

Suffice it to say that intangibly, the present Princeton High School — one of the finest in the nation — would be reduced to an educational skeleton of its present self; that from a mercenary viewpoint, every Borough taxpayer would feel the impact of attempts to support a school plant geared for upwards of 1,500 pupils with the Borough's relatively small (and virtually frozen) pupil population.

It is a rare occasion when an electorate which made a potentially dangerous and costly decision to follow an isolated path is given a chance to reverse its thinking within the brief period of four months. Next Tuesday, the Borough of Princeton will have just such an opportunity.

If the three candidates (Mrs. Edwards, Mr. Carothers, Dr. Cook) who worked for the defeat of last fall's merger referendum are elected, the Borough's decision to split its educational strength down the middle will be clear. On the contrary, if Mrs. Wainee, Mr. Buckland and Mr. Lively, who are pledged to work for eventual regionalization of the schools, are returned to office, much of last fall's trend away from one great Princeton will have been reversed. To heal the cash that symbolizes last fall's bitter division, however, to record the fact that the Borough now does believe in a second chance at merger, a sizeable majority on behalf of this state is essential in Tuesday's balloting.

As the cartoon on page one will indicate to everyone who ever played the familiar childhood game, the light is red. If the Borough voter makes by it heedlessly, education in the community of Princeton — of all places — will have been sent backword in irretrievable fashion.

This Is Princeton

change in Princeton High School would not affect real estate, except in the dropped sending districts.

Final Rounds. In the closing days of the campaign, the two states have stepped up their campaigns with coffee sessions in private homes, telephone and direct mail solicitations. "Since we have been busy setting out information," CBS says, "a great many people have swung over. We find indications . . . people tell us (I talked to a couple of people last weekend who had both voted against merger. They were very much disturbed. They are now pro-merger and have contributed to our campaign fund."

From SOS: "The majority of the Borough board and the CBS candidates are going on as though the October election was a fluke. But the original objections still exist. Knowing that a merger re-run is inevitable if the board remains unchanged, our present aim is to change the make-up of the board. It should reflect the broader public opinion."

Princeton High School. In last statements to the press, CBS says that the "action in October could be the beginning of the destruction of Princeton High School as we know it . . . the cost of education in both Borough and Township will go up unless we work together . . . those with vision and initiative will move to more promising places . . . and if the SOS state wins, we will eventually have some 350 Borough students and perhaps a handful more." (For the full text of the letter, see Mailbox, page 12.)

SOS states: "We believe that totally responsible state-minded such as Princeton High School population will fall to 500 students." "West Wind" will soon grow to 57,000 people are an affront to the Borough voter.

"Scare words like 'peril,' 'disaster' and 'sabotage' constitute a strange approach to intelligent election. Ugly words like 'deceit' and 'misinformation' are surely the best strategem to use on voters who are earnestly seeking the best in education for Borough children."

SOS disputes a statement by George Grace, president of the Township board and Dr. Buckland at the League of Women Voters' candidates meeting last week. "Mr. Carothers stated that Borough Board invitations to the Township board had gone unheeded since the defeat of the referendum. This was greeted by derisive laughter from the pertinent audience but what is worse, it drew categorical denials from Mr. Buckland, incumbent Mr. Grace, incumbent Township president.

"They both stated that no such formal approach had been made to the Township board. Dr. Lively, the second Borough incumbent candidate, indicated his agreement by remaining silent."

SOS cites minutes of the Borough board for October 26, 1961, stating the board resolution urging the Township board to join up in a study of any reasonable alternative to preserve this association," and on October 26 reply from the Grace saying, "While we continue to welcome from the Borough Board of Education specific alternative proposals to achieve this goal (K-12 system) under a single board of education, we believe that with the defeat of regionalization, the best way to complete the Township school system is to establish a new Township high school as soon as possible."

In Princeton Township, only a token vote will be cast, with a hold-the-line budget up for approval and candidates George Grace, Charles Jaffin (uncumbered) and Herbert Bailey unopposed. A list of all pollin' places will be found on page 12.

MAYOR TAKES STAND Favors Pro-Merger Candidates. Mayor Henry S. Patterson came out in support this week of the three pro-merger candidates for Borough School Board: John A. Buckland, Robert A. Lively and Bonnie Wagenschneider.

"I have said on many occasions," the mayor said in a prepared statement, "that in my opinion it is the best interest of Princeton Borough to have a single school system, kindergarten through high school, serving both the Borough and the Township."

"I would urge that the voters elect those candidates who understand and demand the best combined school system and will work for this need," the mayor stated.

He did not refer to the candidates by name, but told reporters at his weekly press conference that his statement itself made it quite clear which candidates he meant.

Mayor Patterson pointed out that, in voting for school board members next Tuesday, "we will really be voting as to whether or not we are interested in providing the Princeton Community with a single school system."

Uses Financial Benefit. He said that a single school system would benefit the Borough both educationally and financially.

"When I made this statement some months ago and remarks with regard to financial considerations may have been misunderstood," Mayor Patterson said.

TOPICS Of The Town

WE GET THE DRIFT
The '66 Blizzard. "You need one good storm each winter to keep the weatherman happy and this was it."

The happy weatherman is David Ludlum, Princeton's own barometer. The one good storm — a howl, who needs to be told?

The storm was its own snow-blower, with winds gusting as high as 40-50 miles an hour. It was a hard snow to measure because of the drifting, but 7.3 inches seems to be about right. Some of the deepest drifts around Princeton were along Province Line Road, where Township snowmen measured hills of snow five and six feet high.

Schools, to the glaze of students and faculty alike, were closed on Monday. Even on Tuesday the 300 Montgomery Township pupils who get bused to Princeton High were snow-bounded out in the wind.

sweet countryside. Some buses made it from Plainsboro, but not all.

A snowbound Plainsboro college student, home for mid-term vacation, traveled down the road late in a tractor and then waited more than an hour Monday evening for the westbound Pennsylvania train that would take him back to college. Trains generally were running on erratic schedules.

R.S.V.P. The snowbound record seems to belong to six people who went to dinner in Haddonfield on Sunday and still weren't back by 11 a.m. Monday. (Will they ever be invited again...?)

The snow had stopped by Monday but it took some time for Princeton to pull itself out of the drifts, brush away the flakes and get back to work. Woodworth's, Zinder's, The Country Mouse, The Princeton Music Center were all closed. So was the "Y".

McCart Theatre, with a concert scheduled for Monday night, opened its doors with question. It was a great night for the theatre — the sold-out 1961-62 season played to about three-quarters of the house and everybody had a seat.

Princeton Airport didn't send anything up on Sunday. It was a lack of instruments rather than abundance of snow that closed down the airport. Planes can always get out, even in snow, but without instruments, they can't get back — or is it to many other airports.

As one was said, you couldn't have hand your way to Princeton Airport, anyway, even if the planes had been flying. Route 200 at the airport was a blinding swirl of blowing snow.

The snow brought death to two residents of the area. Leonard Heinrich, 63, Brunswick Pike, died on Monday from a heart attack after shoveling snow. He was the retired chief armorer for the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Harry Hutchinson, 83, of 14 Wilton, former secretary-treasurer of the Princeton Water Company, died on Sunday after shoveling snow.

A Low Low Meteorologically, Mr. Ludlum says gleefully, it was a really wonderful storm, exceptional, in part, because of the deep barometric low: the barometer registered 28.85 at 10 a.m. Sunday, very low for a winter storm.

A low this deep means that air can rush in behind and keep the snow blowing in. That's just what happened all day Sunday.

"The center of the storm went almost directly over central New Jersey," Mr. Ludlum explains. He said that at 10 a.m. Sunday, the temperature in Princeton was a chill 23 degrees sharpened by a strong west-south-west wind. In New York City at that hour, the temperature was 15 degrees higher — 38 — and a light rain was falling.

The storm was also exceptional because of the area it covered, Mr. Ludlum said, and he wasn't referring to long stretches of sidewalk that had so be shoveled. It's unusual to have both Pennsylvania Turnpike and New York State Turnpike closed.

So far as temperature is concerned, it was not a record storm. Mr. Ludlum recorded a low of 4 degrees at 7 a.m. Saturday, but the temperature never got to zero around Princeton.

The Story Brook-Millstone Watershed Association did, however, report a low of one on Friday and Saturday. It was, in fact, colder in South Jersey than it was here because of the cold air stream that fed in from the west.

Man That Plow! Borough and Township road crews were out, as usual, in good time. Township crews reported Saturday night at 10, and all week-end, the 21 men were on duty plowing. Township engineer Frank Quibley pointed out that, with a higher pay scale now in effect for these crews, he has been able to build up a stable and experienced group of men.

In the Borough, engineer Thomas Cawley called his men for 8:30 Saturday night, and a dozen of them worked 12-hour shifts until 4:30 Monday afternoon.

TOWN TOPICS teaches every boy and girl of business served by the Princeton post office. By their own figures, no other Princeton newspaper does half as well.

A LOT OF SNOW
But Few Accidents. Anyone who thought Sunday's seven-inch snowfall would be accompanied by a rash of traffic accidents was wrong — as far as the Borough and Township are concerned.

The last entry in the Borough docket was for an accident which occurred Friday at 5:40 p.m. "It's hard to believe, but we didn't have so much as a scratch," said Sgt. Arthur Gallant. "If we did, the driver would be falling."

to plan for and build its own high school, the effect on the tax rate for the Borough Taxpayer will be very very substantially more than any possible effect on the tax rate caused by the adoption of a single school system for Princeton.

Mayor Patterson urged a heavy turnout of voters on Tuesday so that "the decision is made by a substantial majority of voters of the Borough and not by the very few who are in the only voters' meeting at a school board election."

COOK SITES

Candidate Sautera stated, "If the inquiries could be worked out, it K-12 is the answer. I would vote for it."

Speaking mildly in answer to a question from the audience, Borough School Board candidate Dr. Alfred Cook last week jarrred the staidly-roomly audience of 200 with this remark at the League of Women Voters' candidates meeting.

Dr. Cook was a member of the steering committee of SOS, the group that worked for the defeat of merger last fall.

In his prepared statement, he referred to the Township as the "natural partner" of the Borough. Later, he said he thought the October referendum was fairly chiefly because there was not a good pupil-allocation plan. He also referred to fears of losing the "Princeton Plan" and he said that the financial picture had not been made sufficiently clear.

"Information lacking?" When an incredulous member of the audience asked, "Do you mean that the referendum failed because people were not informed?" Dr. Cook said, yes, that's what he meant.

He suggested that there was lack of liaison between the Beating the snow this winter may take a lot of doing, and incidentally, a lot of looking. In short, to own a phrase, things may get worse before they get better.

Now snow Friday is a possibility, the Man says. Temperatures will remain below normal and February, the coldest month of the year, will be around for quite a while.

Borough Board and the rest of the community, "The Board itself assess Borough residents correctly before the referendum," he added.

His opponent, Robert A. Lively, admitted that "We made mistakes last time I'll never again give figures on pupil allocation without walking from neighborhood to neighborhood and talking to people." Dr. Lively said, "We were overconfident."

Five of the six Borough candidates were present. Dr. Cook, Dr. Lively, John A. Buckland, Bonnie Warner and Sherri Carothers. Kathleen Edwards, an SOS candidate, had informed the League some time before that she would be unable to attend.

Let's Talk Together. Township-Borough relations were touched on by all candidates. Asked whether he would agree to another merger vote, George Graue, Township School Board member, running unopposed for re-election, said, "I would require a substantial majority consensus before I would ask Township residents to go through it again."

Mr. Carothers, SOS candidate, said, "The Township must express willingness to work with us toward a common goal," and added that invitations to the Township had come unheeded.

Questioned about this statement, Mr. Carothers understood that the Borough had asked the Township to sit in on discussions of the Borough Board's Citizens' Advisory Committee and that the Township had refused.

Mrs. Wagner, co-chairman of the Advisory Committee as well as a candidate, told him the Committee was still in its early stages. "The Township agreed to postpone a meeting with us till we were prepared," she said.

"I can understand why we haven't had any proposals from the Borough Board," observed Mr. Graue. "The present board has been a lame duck" since the referendum and I would not have expected a referendum until after this election."

Borough Fees Tax Rise. "We must re-open conversations with the Township," Dr. Lively said, "and the SOS candidates cannot be the best engineers for the job. There still will be a massive tax increase in the Borough if we have to go it alone."

Mr. Buckland expressed concern for the future stability of the high school. "We COULD be left alone," he stated, pointing to the Township's high school pupils and those of the other sending districts.

The three Township candidates, all unopposed, seemed less interested in merger than they had been.

In the Borough high school, we are selling in a very crowded shop. When you hear the SOS's line to leave, said Herbert Bailey, he referred to a "strong educationally reactionary element" in the Borough and said he was less enthusiastic about merger now than he had been in the fall.

Charles Jaffin, Township incumbent, said population projections had been low, that a new Township high might have as many as 1,000-1,200 pupils to start and that even Princeton High School might not be big enough for Borough and Township together.

"My mind isn't closed," Mr. Bailey added, "but I still have not heard anything better than call merger or a separate Township High School." When someone mentioned studying the question, he realized that various committees had examined many possibilities "in the last three years."

"There is enough good will here to agree on something," Dr. Lively said, "I would sit down with the Township Board knowing them to be honest men. I would hope for sober second thought in the Borough. We can talk, think and plan again."

News Of The THEATRES

PLAYERS GIVE BRECHT "Good Woman of Setzuan."

Stay around for the final act and don't let those two interminable first acts send you out the door.

That's the word of advice this week on Community Players' production of Bertolt Brecht's "The Good Woman of Setzuan," scheduled for two more weekends in Murray Theatre on campus.

Let us say immediately what we have said before: we applaud Community Players' policy of producing Brecht, Ionesco and the timelessly significant "Lysistrata" which is to come next month. This is no straw-hat company of part-time amateurs amusing themselves with "Springtime for Henry" and with McCarter frequently mere a library than a living library. Community Players' endeavors are particularly welcome in the community.

The problem is one of equipment and technique. Earnest endeavor is fine, but the fact remains that these are amateur actors, at best semi-professional, and the pool of actors is so small that miscasting is almost inevitable if a role is to be cast at all.

It is the non-professional nature of the acting that makes this "Good Woman" difficult to endure in its early stages. Also, the play itself doesn't really begin to mesh until it's more than halfway through, and the combination is nearly a fatal one for the Players. Brecht's Good Woman is Shen Te, that old reliable prostitute with a heart of gold. She is tapped by a trio of gods who have been trying to find a truly good human being and she receives from them, as a token of their belief in her goodness, a thousand silver dollars to start a tobacco shop.

The Relatives Are Shaggy. Shen Te is too good for her own good, however. She takes in all sorts of shaggy, worthless relatives, falls hopelessly in love with a beautiful hunk of man who is all clay inside and is buffeted about generally.

Reluctantly to protect her property so that she will have enough money to give people who are in need, she puts on a mask and becomes a cold-eyed "cousin" of Shen Te, a man named Shui Ta. At Shui Ta, she is a wheeler-dealer in ruthlessness, a role she must play if she is to survive and help others in this wicked world.

At the end, she cries out in despair to the gods asking for the answer: how can one be good and still live and do good in the world?

But the gods themselves are bound in the hide of bourgeois attitudes — "the gods help those who help themselves" is one of many choice little banalities they offer to the various sufferers in Setzuan — and in no position to help anyone.

Ann Rottman stands out from the cast as Shen Te, playing her as a warm, responsive woman and drawing the necessary contrast between her and the coldness of Shui Ta. It has been said that one weakness of "The Good Woman" is that Brecht cannot bring the good Shen Te and the cold-hearted Shui Ta face to face for a confrontation because they are portrayed by the same actor; however, Miss Rottman's interpretation of both characters makes the conflict

TUESDAY IS OZ DAY

Ready, Witches? All the favorite characters from "The Wizard of Oz" and a full complement of witches will be on hand Tuesday at McCarter at 2:30 when the Children's Entertainment Series sponsored by the Borough PTA starts its 24th season.

"The Story of Mimi" will follow on Tuesday, March 15, and the April show, on Tuesday, April 18, will be "Young Joe Franklin." The series will end on May 17 with "Babu."

In "The Story of Mimi," Tony Montanaro, a pupil of Marcel Marceau, will show the children how Mimi developed from the days of the cave man to the present. His show grew out of questions asked by children during previous performances in Princeton and elsewhere.

"Babu" tells, with authentic Indian music, dance, costumes and scenery, about a girl imprisoned in an old tower in India and her rescue by Babu. Tickets and information are available from Mrs. A. Austen, 10 Princeton Avenue, on weekdays between 1 and 3.

WILDE IS THE OFFER

For Spring Drama, Oscar Wilde's delicious piece of wit and heroics "Lady Windermere's Fan" will be at McCarter Theatre spring drama series on Friday, February 18, at 8 p.m.

Mario Siletti is directing Charlotte Gaze as Lady Windermere, Ruby Hallbrook as Mrs. Erlynne, David Byrd as Lord Windermere, Gregory Abels as Lord Darlington and Anne Murray as the Duchess of Berwick.

The rest of the repertoire series will consist of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Strindberg's "Miss Julie," Shaw's "Candida" and the Irish musical, "Arabian-Pogue" by Dion Boucicault.

Plays will run in repertory through April 17.

PIANO PLAYER DEAD

Shot, "Shoot the Piano Player," a film from the directorial hand of Francois Truffaut, will be shown in McCarter this Friday at 8 p.m. as part of the International Film Series.

Next Tuesday, McCarter will show "Gold Diggers of 1933," with Ginger Rogers, Joan Blondell and Ruby Keeler and, as the star, Busby Berkeley and his production numbers.

PLAYHOUSE

The Heroes of Telemark (now playing). This is a super-hero adventure film of wartime heroism and savagery. It recreates a little-known episode of World War II concerning a handful of Norwegian saboteurs assigned to destroy the Nazi factory which made heavy water for an atomic bomb.

The two who lead the assault on the fortress-like factory, which is hidden deep in a mountainous canyon, are Kirk Douglas as the college scientist, and Richard Harris, leader of the Resistance. Ulla Jacobsson and Michael Redgrave operate a clandestine radio outpost for the Resistance.

The stirring story, filmed in color against the majestic, snow-covered heights of Norway, piles one climax upon another. The action is excellent, the photography magnificent, and for ski fans, there are some wonderful skiing sequences.

David Copperfield (1 p.m.) This stirring tale, rated by Parents Magazine as especially interesting to age 12 and older.

PRINCE

Thunderball (now playing). Remember the Austin Martin DB 5 that appeared in "Goldfinger," equipped with twin throwing machines, one behind the headlights, a set of tire-shavers, revolving license plates, and an ejector seat for unwanted passengers? Sean Connery as James Bond swings in hard to action in "Thunderball."

There are also rocket-firing motor bikes, a two-man diving bell that operates at 15 fathoms, huge underwater jet-capable of transporting 20 metric tons, a giant hydrofoil that skims the ocean at 95 mph, and a land-to-air device that catches a man aloft at 100 miles per hour.

The indestructible secret agent has been brought to life by Luciana Purnell as the lethal lady. The action and there's plenty to satisfy all Bond fans, taken place in and around the luxury hotels and beach clubs of the Bahamas, and in colorful settings of the Out Islands.

NEW STRAND

Zorba the Greek (Thurs thru Sun), a film directed by Michael Cacoyannis from a novel by Nobel Prize winner Kazantzakis. Anthony Quinn in the title role stars with English actor Alan Bates and Irene Pappas, famous for her serene portrayals of Electra and Antigone.

SUEDE AND FOX

In Living Color Any fox would be happy to be dyed green and draped gracefully around the collar of a matching green suede coat, and when we say "green" we mean a good, ripe lime, although "rich green" is the term used at Milsdy, on Palmer Square. That's where the quick green fox is jumping over the lazy green suede.

The coat is a full-length casual with slash pockets, and that fox collar is detachable. Milsdy's particular pleasure this winter-spring is a group of suede suits styled with brief cut-aways or Chanel jackets piped in contrasting leather. Colors are pale gold, a fawny tan piped with deep brown, Florentine blue (medium) and a rich Burgundy. Skirts have elasticized waists, and Milsdy will order a skirt in one size and a jacket in another if you wish, to make very sure you have a flawless fit.

The fur coats behind the walnut doors of Milsdy can either go skidding or cocktail, which ever you're up to at the moment. The ski jacket could be one more of mink sides. It's completely reversible with a waterproof poplin on the reverse.

Our favorite raincoat is the tawny poplin completely lined with Canadian lynx. There's a lynx helmet to match, if you want, to keep your head dry, too.

Milsdy likes to keep fur jackets, coats and capelets simple and classic because a mink jacket is not a garment you replace every year as styles change. A basic mink

In Violet As one has a collar which is a soft Peter Pan when closed and a notched style when open.

If you do want high style, you may have a brief jacket with portrait collar and gathered back — almost a bubble design. Lucile, a mink which appears sometimes in browns, has been used for this jacket and for a very brief one which is almost a bolero.

A cape stole with fitted shoulder and base is preferred by Milsdy over the Eldorado stole with its fur collar worn the front, because with the cape stole, you can hold your handbag in one hand and your glass in the other and not worry about losing your mink off your shoulders.

Hand-wrought jewelry and antique jewelry complement the furs at the Palmer Square shop. A Junoesque woman would be just the one to wear a 50-karat aquamarine ring with four tiny prongs of diamonds to give it almost a star appearance.

Someone petite and youthful would be lovely in the Victorian gold bracelet, slim as a wraith, with a little flower of genuine Oriental pearls in the center.

The bee with the smoky topaz body and the gold wings is really a pin, and so is the cocktail with its great of turquoise and diamonds. Her feathers are so finely wrought he looks about ready to fly away. Her wings are tall and one of the hand-drawn pieces of jewelry in the hand-made Milsdy collection.

Cabochon jade and diamonds in a three-quarter inch gold bracelet, topaz in variety, and an exquisite little circle pin of Oriental pearls can you think of anything better to go with mink?

IT'S NEEDLE TIME

Wool! Prints! The Vogue spring pattern book on the counter at the Fabrie Shop, Chambers Street, says that this spring you will be sewing fabrics in the "tenderest petal pinks," and the "gentlest fawn lines."

The tenderest petal pinks we saw at the shop were in a group of daron or nylon creases: watered blue florals, with every shade of blue stirred into a quiet pond, or the same print in green, or a garden of cosmos in blue, blues and greens or a bouquet of wonderfully open-hearted pink peonies, tender petals in deed.

A firmer line is taken by a group of Irish linens and linen blends, all straight from Ireland. Outlined black tulips and tulip-tree leaves stand out against white in one pattern. And those red poppies, cycling each other across an expanse of white! Shaggy hitheries in deep turquoise, hitheries in olive are displayed against another white background.

Some of those nice heavy cottons that require no lining are great for shifts. Here's one with immense lemon and

The New Strand

Lamberville, N.J.
(609) 397-0186

Dear Princelians:

"Progress" — the giant escalator that makes everything flat, dull, stale, but that does not always unprofitably is running into the New Hope in the form of a CountryClub — cum — Housing project known as Village II. Either one of these is had enough for a community that is reputed to be, and by contemporary standards is, non-conformist; together they are sure to be fatal. We don't want to turn back the clock or even stop it. We know what the world is like, and we know it has to be that way. All we ask is one little place of refuge, our sanctuary from monotony, one oasis of non-conformity, one enclave of freedom for people who want to be different just for the sake of being different. New Hope, for all its faults, is still such a place. Help us keep it that way. Help us! Help us! HELP US!! Come to a

Engagements and Weddings

ENGAGEMENTS

Nettel-Warren, Miss Edith I. Nettel, daughter of Austin K. Nettel of Guilford, Conn., and the late Mrs. Nettel, to Stryker Warren of Mill Valley, Calif., son of Mrs. Henry E. Warren of Princeton and the late Mr. Warren. The wedding is planned for February 12, in Christ Episcopal Church, Sayville, Conn. Nettel, a graduate of St. Margaret's School, Waterbury, Conn., is now secretary at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, New Haven, during World War II she served with the WAVES. Mr. Warren, an alumnus of Princeton University, class of 1932, served in the Army Medical Corps as a captain during World War II. He operates a pharmaceutical sales agency in San Francisco. His marriage ended in divorce.

Weeden-Tate, Miss Judy Weeden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Weeden of Cranbury, to William E. Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Tate of Knoxville, Tenn. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Weeden, a member of the Princeton Hospital affiliate, is employed by Princeton High School and the Princeton Hospital School of Practical Nursing. Mr. Tate, an alumnus of Jefferson High School, Knoxville, is a specialist fourth class with the Army's Transportation Corps in France.

Wilson-Maxon, Miss Constance P. Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wilson of Cohasset, Mass., to J. George S. Maxon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maxon of 10 Howe Circle. The wedding will take place in June. Miss Wil-

We Can't Make It

When you've got a date in Germany on Saturday night and a date at McCarter Theatre on Sunday afternoon, you've got something called "transportation difficulties," in spite of jet time.

The First Chamber Dance Quartet, booked into McCarter on Sunday afternoon, February 6, is playing somewhere in Germany on the night of Saturday, February 5. Thines got so thick that the dancers — there are actually five — were begged off and asked McCarter audiences to come another day.

Full refunds for the February 6 performance will be given. McCarter will be announced early next fall.

non attended Endicott Junior College and is a member of the senior class at Moore College of Art. Mrs. Nesbitt is serving in the field artillery at Fort Sill, Okla., is a graduate of The Hill School and Princeton University, Class of 1965.

Downs-Wesner, Miss Eleanor R. Downs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Downs, Hopewell Township, to Howard R. Wesner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wesner of Hopewell Township, an alumnus of Hopewell Township Central High School, is employed by Spicely in Ewing Township. Mr. Wesner attended Princeton High School and is with the Acme Stores in Lambertville.

Divilio-Szyniewski, Miss Vlesse C. Divilio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Divilio of Mt. Lucas Road, to Harry J. Szyniewski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Szyniewski of Trenton. A September wedding is planned. The bride, a graduate of Princeton High School, is employed by Fifth Dimension. Her fiancé, a Hamilton High School West alumnus, is employed in Princeton by the State-Harvey Association.

Fritsch-Mangold, Miss Betty Ann Fritsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miss Fritsch of Lexington to Philip R. Mangold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Mangold of Blackwood. A late summer wedding is planned. Miss Fritsch attended Jewell Township Central High School and is a senior at Glashoro State College. Mr. Mangold, an English teacher at Glashoro High School, was graduated from Father Judge High School, Philadelphia and Glashoro State College, where he is a graduate student in secondary education.

The Girardot film is the story of an innkeeper of an amiable young lady who never let notions of sexual morality interfere with her career or her pleasures. Not as flashy as "Eating," perhaps, but more Gallic, and more gallic.

with more homespun at the Fabric Shop. A riot of yell, it's not quite paisley, and not quite Pennsylvania Dutch, but there's plenty of red, royal, powder and pink in the floral pattern, and a rose solid and a royal solid in match.
Sunny yellow-orange homespun will go with the orange solid, and the green-orange symmetrical print the yellow-orange is an overall design will match up with the green.

Make a white Easter suit from The Fabric Shop's white crocheted wool anchored firm by a white backing.
And you're the colorful type, wear yourself spring wool in the high vibrating coral, the bright red, the soft rose pink, the powder blue, the gentle maize, the willow roval, the avocado, the dazling lemon — all wool, and mostly in textures, but not heavily slubbed.

ers must have settled it between themselves.

The Township, with many more miles of road within its boundaries, was almost as barren.
There were a few mishaps licensed but no serious, nor any with injuries.

Said Pil David Potts, "The
snow kept most of the cars off
the road. Those that did skid just went into snowbanks without much damage."

In one collision, early last week on Cherry Valley Road near Crestview Drive, two women drivers were slightly injured.

Mrs. Jane S. Griswold, 44, Ridgeview Road, received concussions and lacerations of the face. Mrs. Helen C. Bowen, 52, Cherry Valley Road, received a skull fracture.

According to the police report, Mrs. Bowen sidged into the path of Mrs. Griswold's car.
Police noted that because of an elevation of the width of the roadway at the scene had been reduced to 13 feet, "There were no witnesses."

MAYOR FOR GOVERNOR?
Patterson News. The name of Henry S. Patterson is believed among New Jersey
theophobans as a possibility for the 1969 gubernatorial race.

But the Hightstown mayor says he is not particularly excited about the idea.

"I would be most reluctant to run for governor because of the time I would have to take away from my family," Mayor Patterson told TOWN TOPICS
last week after a story in the New York Journal-American had labeled him a "New GOP Star Rising in New Jersey."

"People have asked me in the past year about running for either governor or senator," the mayor continued,
"and I have thought about it,
but not seriously."

The mayor, termed the lengthy New York newspaper story largely "fiction." The reporter, after a two-hour interview with the Borough mayor, convinced him to John Lindsay, the Kennedy — Robert F. Kennedy — Robert F. Kennedy and John — Nelson Rockefeller George Romney and William Scheridan.

Mayor Patterson, by his own choice, has never worked closely with the state's Republican organization, he suggested, in referring to the feelers that have come out in his direction
that the party might be "burning" him.

"I said I'd never run for mayor, either," he added, after slating his reluctance to run.

BOOK FUND ESTABLISHED
In Memory of Drowned Boys.
Residents of the Hightstown
Apartments on Lake Carnegie have contributed nearly $300
for a memorial book fund at Princeton Public Library in honor of Jacob Schlesinger, 7, and Steven Coyne, 8, who drowned on January 20 in the Hoboken-Lake Carnegie Canal.

The boys are the sons of Dr.
and Mrs. Michael Schlesinger, Hoboken Apartments, and Major and Mrs. Robert A.
Coyne of Maple Avenue.

The spontaneous collection spanned several days after the loss of their two young sons.
Young classmates at Riverside School also contributed.

library director, "Both dren's book collection. "Duffy boys," he said, "used the library a great deal." Dr. Schlesinger will assist in the selection of the books.

Residents who wish to support the fund may do so by sending their gift to the Public Library, attention of the

ing and the gift for the Schlesinger-Coyne fund.

MOBE FROM UNIVERSITY
Borough Contribution.
Princeton University has raised its contribution to the Borough of Princeton from $10,000 to $15,000 a year, starting this year.

It is the first raise from the University in about 10 years, and is the result of some general but persistent prodding by the Borough over a considerable period of time.

The sum represents a partial recompense for University property which is not subject to real estate taxes. For many years, the University paid $9,000 annually; then, about 1950 the amount was increased to $10,000.

The current increase will help make up the loss in rates sustained when the University took over homes on William Street, a few houses on Nassau Street, property at the dead end of Charlton and so on. In addition, since 1950
the University has erected new buildings resulting fire protection and occasional police protection.

Besides its annual payment to the Borough, the University contributes to the Board of Health, supports its share of sewer and incinerator costs
and maintains certain streets,
chiefly Pit-Randolph, Broadmoor, Western Way and College Road.

WATER FLUORIDATED
Since December 15, because of the recent winter, the Citizens' Water Committee reports that much of the public is unaware that fluoridation of the water supply was put into effect December 15 by the Princeton Water Company.

Mrs. Arthur Beddoe of 747 Nassau Street, said that "notice of this date was given in the Princeton newspapers on December 8, at which time
many people apparently failed to observe the announcement."

On another point, Mrs. Beddoe said, "Many people are under the erroneous impression that water softener units
in the home will remove fluoride salts; however, such units will not remove this agent, nor will they remove the fluorine
that will dependably do so."

The alternative for those who wish to drink unfluoridated water is the well water provided at the Stuy Brook pump station near the Canal
off lower Alexander Street.
The well is located to the right of the main building of the pumping complex. If there is no water in the tank, a car horn
will signal the foreman inside
to turn on the pump switch.

Any additional inquiries
should be directed to Mrs.
Beddoe or Mrs. L. B. Webster.

Major Decision at Hand.

To the Editor of Town Topics: In the lifetime of the Borough's oldest resident, no decision has been more important than the coming Board of Education election on Tuesday, February 8. This decision draws its great urgency from two sources: (1) the issues themselves, for they have to do with the maintenance or the certain fall of the Borough as a place to live; and (2) the fact that this election represents a second but last chance for the citizens of the Borough to undo the damage to both Princeton resulting from defiance of the school merger referendum last October.

The issues can be grouped under four headings (and we do not attempt to list them in any order of importance):

A. Since the October referendum there has come into being a "crisis of confidence" not only between the educational leadership of the two Princetons, but also between the rank and file of good citizens. This loss of confidence—even distrust—derives on the Township side from rejection of two years of patient negotiation.

This rejection was made by a Borough electorate that was in some cases apathetic, in some cases confused, and in other cases misinformed and cruelly misled. If confidence is not restored, we believe the rift will mar all relations between the two Princetons, municipally and personally.

B. The action in October could be the beginning of the destruction of the Princeton High School as we know it. And this is a great high school by every conceivable standard from its college admission record to its world-famous choir. A community that destroys a great school is dead. It deprives its young people of the opportunity to become the leaders of tomorrow.

C. There is vision and initiative move to more promising places; those without vision and initiative are left. We choose them to guide the Princeton of the future through the problems that press upon it.

D. The Borough tax dollar is not the major problem. Nevertheless, we must recognize that the cost of education in both Borough and Township will go up unless we work together. If the SOS candidates win, the Township will build its own high school. (They have said as much, and we believe them.) If the SOS state wins we will eventually have some 350 Borough students and perhaps a handful more in a high school built for 1,500. And pay for it.

D. We need now a Board of Education that can help the leaders of tomorrow emerge, that can continue patient negotiations with the Township. Let us owe the dedication, intelligence and professionalism of Bonnie Wagner, Bob Lively and Sandy Buckland.

Their records speak for them. They can re-open the door to unhampered negotiation: the SOS state would throw away the key.

Our action on February 8 will win our second but last chance. The SOS party line in this election is a transparent attempt to stake out a claim to the sweetness and light position. They would not, they maintain, put the Borough through another agony of harsh words and divisions.

It is they who put us through the agony in the first place. It is they who are doing it again.

We contend this is a shrewd town, capable of undergoing what it must to secure its future. We believe, further, that the current mood of the Borough electorate is one of gratefulness for a second chance to show it can be a trusted partner of the Township in educational progress.

The full expression of this mood will come in a resounding victory for the Wagner-Lively-Buckland team at the polls on February 8.

How to Lose $500,000.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

During our great debate on school regionalization, some rather confusing statements have been made on the costs to Princeton of the school merger. There statements have been made by individuals who seemingly were unaware that it has been New Jersey policy to encourage regionalization of school districts in order to develop school systems with efficient continuous educational programs.

In order to further encourage this objective, it seems certain that New Jersey will introduce shortly a new incentive system for the regionalization of school districts. Under this plan each grade redistricted will be rewarded by increased aid of 2% for the first five years, and by 1% for the second five years. Regionalization of Princeton Borough and Township K-12 would therefore result in increased aid of the first five years, and 13% the second five years.

Regionalization of the two Princeton school systems would, therefore, bring increased aid of approximately $65,000 per year the first five years, and about $33,000 per year the second five years. These computations are approximations on the basis of present available data. It is more than likely that over the ten-year period, the state aid would be much more. Failure to regionalize would deprive Princeton schools of this additional nearly one-half million dollars over the ten-year period. Can we afford this additional expense, and proceed to the up increased tax burdens to satisfy the few who are opposed to school merger?

Three Votes from Real Estate.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

As Borough residents who are or have been active in Princeton real estate, we wish to call attention to one aspect of the school situation which our fellow voters should consider before going to the polls next week.

It is a basic fact of residential real estate that where there is any disparity in the quality of schools in two adjoining districts, the homes in that area with poorer schools will sell less readily and at lower prices. We believe that there can be no satisfactory outcome of our school crisis ex-

Where to Vote

Polls will be open from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. next Tuesday, February 8, for school elections.

The polling places:
 Borough: Election Districts 1, 2, 3 and 9, Nassau Street School gymnasium.
 Districts 4, 5 and 8, Nassau Street School auditorium.
 Districts 6 and 7, Witherspoon School gymnasium.
 Township: Election Districts 1 and 4, Community Park School; 2, 7 and 8, Johnson Park School; 5 and 6, Littlebrook School; 3 and 9, Riverside School.

 cept through a unified effort on the part of the entire Princeton community, Borough and Township working together in cooperative good will.

The decision we make at the polls next Tuesday will determine the future of our schools for years to come. At this juncture we need a school board whose members have had the experience and knowledge to cope with the crucial school problems we face. It is equally important that we elect a board capable of re-establishing a harmonious relationship with the Township so that some arrangement — acceptable to both municipalities — can be worked out for our joint problems.

Dr. Buckland, Dr. Lively and Mrs. Wagner have all devoted years of time and study to the Borough schools. We believe they are better prepared to serve us than are their opponents, two of whom stated publicly the Candidates' Meeting on January 26 that they have had no working contact with whatever public school management before last spring when their interest was aroused by the merger question. (The third opponent, not present at the meeting, has had similarly little involvement with the schools.)

We believe, moreover, that the very nature of the schism in this community, the only possible chance for a viable working relationship between our two school systems lies in the election of the above-named candidates.

Whose Responsibility?

To the Editor of our Town Topics:
 Like all Princeton residents, I am most disturbed about the recent drownings. I am also disturbed as to the safety conditions now in practice.

I believe each of the elementary schools has had an assembly on ice-safety. This is a very fine idea.

However, the day the two boys drowned I listened to the Princeton radio station from 12 noon 'til 2 o'clock. Hearing no announcement about the ice-conditions, I called the Borough police who said as far as they knew the ice was safe for skating.

I then went down to the lake. It was warm, the ice looked soft but the sign said, "Ice is Safe for Skating."

Shortly after we went on the lake (near Washington Road), the Township Police drove up. I asked them what their report was and they said they had heard from the ice-ester that it was "treacherous in many spots, not advisable for skating." I then asked if they were going to change the sign and they said that was not their responsibility.

Whose responsibility is it? Borough, Township or University? If we are told to obey the signs and police reports, they must be accurate and changed promptly when necessary.

Does not the University, which is so well patrolled in other respects, feel a responsibility to patrol and treat the ice area near University apartments? Isn't there some way of patrolling designated areas on the lake and encouraging only safe skating for skating? Should not parents be encouraged to remain with their children while they are skating?

The responsibility is there for us all to face and prompt action should be taken to make the lake safer.

CAROL ATKIN
 153 Parkside Drive.

Safety Suggestions Augmented

To the Editor of Town Topics:

In support of the safety proposals made by Mr. Samuel W. Pillsbury in your issue of January 27 and to give them added punch, I suggest further that a flag indicating the safe city conditions be raised in a conspicuous place fully visible from the lake. In my opinion the center of the bridge is the best place.

It is well enough to have a flag on Nassau Street but that location lacks relevancy.

How To Survive

An accident witness reported this: "The driver in the car ahead kept turning his head to look at the girl who talked."

Cary S. Kammiller

I noted that the road should be a w a s perhaps two or three inches lower than the road every one of a while, their car slipped off onto the shoulder, and each time he pulled back on the road his rear wheels skidded a little trying to climb those few inches. Then it happened, once again the rear wheels skidded sideways and their car veered into the opposite lane. The crash into the oncoming car was sickening. Mr. Pillsbury's comparison to a helving beach is a good one. However, most beaches fly a flag indicating the relative safety of the water. Also it has always seemed to me that the canal and other potentially dangerous waters contiguous to the skating area ought to be posted well before the beginning of the skating season so that the effect of the signs would be cumulative as well as immediate.

Vote of Confidence

To the Editor of Town Topics: I should like to express publicly my thanks and appreciation to the Police Department of the Borough of Princeton for the help and consideration given me and my young son.

Lieutenant Maguire spent his own time and took several photographs on my behalf for a motor vehicle violation which was appearing in the magazine's Court. After sitting through over four hours of court proceedings on two different occasions, I became aware of the conscientious and careful job of law enforcement provided us by the Borough Police. ### There's Still a Chance.

To the Editor of Town Topics: Borough voters are still being asked to believe that reorganization of Princeton High School is the "Reasonable Compromise." This is done in spite of the fact that a reorganized high school budget, because it is presented as a board of education responsible only for the high school and voted on earlier than the elementary school budgets, leads to annihilation of the financing of the lower grades.

It is suggested that three boards of education (High,

No — the possible compromise is the township to enter a k-12 reorganization with the borough. For since the township has the possibility of a township high school has been accepted by many township residents, and the challenge to build a high school of excellence has great appeal. The planning and building of a modern school plant seems to many more attractive, and not appreciably more expensive, than assuming 60% of the mortgage on P.H.S. But, because Princeton is still one community, the k-12 reorganization is still possible — if, and only if, a substantial majority of borough voters indicate they want it, by electing candidates who will work for it. —Mrs. Robert M. PRINCETON HIGH STUDENTS SPEAK OUT
We are deeply concerned over the future of our high school. Our alarm has been caused by the plans of the Township to proceed with the building of its own high school.

We are sure that we speak for many, many of our high school friends in expressing our dismay that this school in which we take so much pride, and which has contributed so much to our lives, is now forced to fight for its life as a first rate high school.

No one likes to see his alma mater go downhill! We all know now that if the Township builds its own high school the Princeton High School will be reduced to about one-third its present enrollment. And we all know very well that such a size makes a grade "A" school turn into a grade "C" school.

Furthermore, to have two high schools will cut across the friendships formed, will hurt academic preparation, and weaken both athletic and extra curricular activities. Think what the choir or the football team or the student council will look like under such circumstances! And what will happen to our faculty?

We, the students, have the biggest stake in all this . . . we, and our successors, Why should we have to suffer? All our lives we have heard a lot of blustering to the effect that "There are more brains per square mile in Princeton than in many other cities in the country." So let's prove it. # You NEED a Home Improvement Loan

You might call this convenience. We call it dangerous.

Too many plugs in a single electric outlet may look safe, but behind the wall or floor the feed wire can heat up to a fatal fire. Fuses can burn out and sometimes people back-up a burned out fuse with a copper penny. Yes, overloaded wiring is dangerous. Get away from this kind of danger with new wiring. Come in today and arrange a home improvement loan and be safe.

 places to help process the first day covers of the new. Einstein stamp. Employment would probably be for a week to 10 days prior to March 14 at the rate of $2.37 per hour.
 Application forms and further details may be obtained from the Post Office. Those interested should apply now.

TO FUNNEL THAT FLOOD
 Harry's Brook Again, Concrete headwalls to funnel away the floodwater will be built by Mercer County at the Locust Lane bridge over Harry's Brook.

The construction will allow rain water to flow directly into a pipe instead of seeping widely over the ground and into basements. Mercer County Freeholders have passed a $300,000 bond issue and will accept bids at 2 p.m. next Tuesday.

Princeton Township's only expense will be about $200 for 40-inch pipe to carry off excess water. Township engineer Frank L. Quinby said this week that construction might begin late in February, weather permitting. The area has been the site of serious flooding but the waters have been quiet for the past two or three years, Mr. Quinby said.

"MARCH" FOR CHILDREN
 Needed: It's search into the cause of birth defects is financed through the Mothers March of Dimes and volunteers are needed to man the March in Princeton through February 14.

March of Dimes money also supports clinics for babies born with defects. Approximately 2,000,000 Americans are mentally retarded because of such defects, according to March of Dimes statistics. Volunteering may be as simple as power only half a dozen houses if their time is limited, should call Mrs. Ruth Sharon, 821-1156.

SEMINARY YARD OKAYED
 By Borough Trustees, In granting the Theological Seminary a site yard variance last week, the Borough Zoning Board gave it the final green light to proceed with its three-building "Corporation Yard" series College Road from the Springfield Club.

Last month, the Seminary had received a unanimous ahead from the Planning Board Zoning committee. The request for a second-growth building is to use an old lot.

In other action, the Board approved plans of a new location Pool 21B to convert a residence on Little Street into a clubhouse and the request for additional signs by the Sunoco Service Station at the Corner of Nassau Street and Murray Place. It denied the station's request for a second-growth pump clinic.

Because two of the four members present are associated with Princeton University, the Board declined taking action on the University's request to install a small apartment and kitchenette in the Lower House, the University-owned house on Stockton Street.

John H. Marks is associate professor of Oriental Studies at the University of Hawaii. Fitchburg is associated with a New York law firm which handles University business. With member Roger McDonough absent, there was not a proper quorum.

Robert Sullivan was elected chairman of the Zoning Board in its annual re-convening. Mr. McDonough, who is named vice-chairman, and Bernard Glover, secretary, Lowell J. Curran is the board attorney.

BIRTHS
 Sixteen Born, Eleven boys and five girls were born last week at Princeton Hospital.
 Girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter, Monmouth Street, Hightstown, January 27; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Van der Meer, Meadow Brook Avenue, Trenton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Dvorak, 128 Herndon Road, both on January 28. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lefkowitz, Crescent Avenue,

Rocky Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mahoney, 19 Sutton Drive, Trenton, both on January 29.

Boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bergman, 300 Dodds Lane, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster, 107 Myr Brook, both on January 30.

WHAT SHOULD A NEW SCHOOL CONTAIN? Better athletic facilities, for one, according to PHS junior John McKeever (right) — understandable, perhaps, because John is a member of the football team. More special classes for gifted students, says junior Tim Barron. For more on what students think a new high school should be like, see below.

Question of the Week

Question: From a student's viewpoint, what features would you like to see included in the proposed new high school and what would you like to see eliminated.

Where asked: Nassau Street and at PHS.

Tim Barron, 198 Shady Brook Lane, junior: Everything bigger. A bigger auditorium, more facilities, a larger gym with more seating capacity... more stands along the football field. In a new school, I'd like to see lights for night football. A lot of kids go to the University to take courses. I think a new school should offer more advanced courses so these students wouldn't have to walk to the University.

John McKeever, 52 Duddy Lane, junior: I feel the athletic fields at this high school are just about the right size, but there's not enough grass. A new school should have better facilities and larger stands. I think this would promote more school spirit.
Debbie Endrasy, Province Line Road, junior: I'd like to see the art program improved, and a better campus. A larger campus would mean a better separation between departments — they wouldn't all be bunched in one section and you'd have more land for more fields.

Judy Hunt, 19 Edwards Place, junior: A larger auditorium and eliminate the sending districts. We're too crowded.

Bob Upchurch, 107 Phillips Drive, sophomore: I think a new school could use more science labs and perhaps an extra language lab. Scholastically, Princeton High is pretty good. The math section is good and they offer a good selection of courses, but you can always use more. An electronics department might be proposed, for example, and perhaps another history course covering current events and national and foreign affairs. I'd enjoy that. The history they teach now is just old stuff. The sports facilities are fairly good but could use some more. Mainly, we need more space.

Bill Ashton, 96 Moore Street, sophomore: I'd like to see two gyms in any new school. We lack space right now. This gym is pretty small. We've had two basketball teams and the wrestling team using the gym all at one time. Otherwise, it's pretty small, though. We've got more people in the school and it makes a difference.

Janice Grynshel, 13 Ober Road, freshman: Open school later. I think school starts too early. Classes should start at about 8:30 and end at 3 like they do now. I'd like to see one class period a day eliminated.

Peter Heinenmann, 52 Locust Lane, freshman: A high school swimming pool and no restrictions on clothing or length of hair — and a student lounge.
Betsy Barntman, 76 Valley

STAINED GLASS
At McCarter Theatre, During February, the Princeton Art Association exhibits "The Art of Stained Glass" from the Willet Studios in Philadelphia.

In conjunction with this unique show, Dr. Henry Lee Willet will lecture on the subject
at the P.A.A. headquarters, 14 Nassau Street, on Thursday evening, February 3, at 8 Members and the public are invited to attend for a slight admission charge.

Family Tradition. It is rare in our century to find a real family business which has been continued through the generations with constant artistic development, a sustained pride in workmanship and a keen sense of responsibility to the public.

In putting on a show of work from the Willet Studio,
we are privileged to know and appreciate a fine family tradition, a three-generation enterprise, now headed by Dr.
Willet as president; his son,
E. Crosby Willet, as vice-president, and his wife, Marie, as treasurer. The latter was in charge of setting up the show, which she has done dramatically, with technical precision and an eye for the meaning and flexibility of this art form.

History. The history of the Willet Studios bears interest
and we quote from their brochure,
"Brought into being in the late 80's by William Willet
and his wife, Anne Lee Willet,
as a protest against the opulent interiors which were the rage at the turn of the century,
the Willet Studios first attracted attention in 1908 with the Channel Cathedral in Calvary Episcopal Church in Pittsburgh. National recognition followed in 1910 when, in competition with leading studio

CHAPTEL DETAIL: Stained glass in St. Mark's Church,
New Canaan, Conn., came from the Willet Studios in Philadelphia. Examples of Willet glass are now on view at Mc-Carter Theatre and will remain through February.

Throughout the world, the Willet Studio was awarded the Commission for the Cadet Chapel at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

Today under the guidance of Henry Lee Willet and E.
Crosby Willet, son and grandson of the founder, this studio is the country's largest,
employing more than 80 artist-
craftsmen in Philadelphia.
Hundreds of commissions have been completed in cathedrals,
churches, synagogues, mansions, libraries, colleges, chapels, private homes and even factories in 48 states and overseas. Among recent commissions are the glass walls for the Hall of Science at the New York World's Fair, the glass chapel for the new American-doctored children's hospital in Krakow, Poland.

At McCarter, there are examples of this history. Headings and reproductions of major works make explanatory panels. A color reproduction of the meditation window in the First Presbyterian Church of Holtzman shows a remarkable instance of what splintered light and color can do in a non-objective design.
"Pentecost" is probably the most spectacular exhibit. Sand-casted dove and flames of the holy Spirit are superimposed
on a panel of small glass chips embedded in clear epoxy re-sins. Illuminated, its movement bells the heavy material and it carries great emotional power.

Theatrical Theme. Stained glass adapts itself to non-religious subjects as well, and as an example of this, the Willet Studios prepared a special piece for the Princeton show.

An abstract theatre theme,
"Dancing Night," is a free form sculpture of laminated glass and polyester, hung in two bays. It has a dazzling effect of fractured light and color
seen from behind the footlights, looking outward. Religious theatre themes are shown in the handsome windows depicting the four sacred operas, "Parsifal," "Ama!,"
"Thais" and "Samson and De-libah" and also in the glass
mosaic illustrating Tchaikow-sky's "The Legend" with "La-hou Rose."

From all these exhibits, one senses the versatility of the stained glass medium in religious, academic and everyday modern living, and one sees
the great range of the possible
traditional and modern design.
This is an unusual show, and a rewarding experience.

Satire in Princeton. At the P.A.A., 14 Nassau Street, during February 15, there will be a show of satirical drawings
by three Princeton artists
Michael Ramus, Arnold Roth
and Henry R. Martin. It is open to the public daily from 12:30 to 2:30 and at odd times designated on the schedule at the P.A.A.

Difficult as it may be to see a show with such limited availability, it is worth finding a few moments to be amused by

PEOPLE In The News

Richard Cherrington, Plainsboro, and Robert B. Griffin, Opossum, and Skidmore have received service pins for ten or more years of work on the New Jersey Turnpike Authority. The two were among 55 employees honored at the Authority's Fifth Annual Service Awards Dinner at the Forsgate Country Club.

Marilyn B. Kann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Kann, 143 Loomis Court, and Elizabeth H. Margosches, daughter of Mrs. Irene Margosches, 3 Maple Terrace, are singing with the Bryn Mawr College Chorus. The 10-member chorus will present a concert at Bryn Mawr with the Glee Club of Franklin and Marshall College on February 19.

John P. McLusky, 89 Meadowbrook Drive, has been appointed sales manager of the Panelyte Industrial Division of Thiokol Chemical Corporation. He has been with the firm since 1949.

Otto Janssen, 29 East Broad Street, Hopewell, has joined the Newark public relations firm of William G. Hetherington & Co. as an associate. He is a graduate of Ohio State University and a member of the National Press Club and Overseas Press Club.

Charles Petzold III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Petzold, 179 Longview Drive, is one of 19 members of Bucknell's freshman swimming team. The former Lawrenceville School athlete won the New Jersey Junior Men's 200-yard breaststroke championship and was a finalist in the nationals.

Stanley J. Pokempner, 249 Shady Brook Lane, will join Audits & Surveys Inc. in New York this month as vice-president in charge of studies of advertising effectiveness. Mr. Pokempner, vice-president of Market Research Corporation of America, holds a masters degree in economics and statistics from Columbia University. He is a member of the American Statistical Association and vice-president of its Central New Jersey Chapter.

Prof. Louis F. Rahm, 204 State Road, has received an award from the Plastics Institute of America in recognition of his contributions to plastics engineering and the advancement of graduate education in this field. In 1945, Prof. Rahm, now retired, initiated the unique Plastics Program at Princeton University.

Dr. Lewis H. Saret, Province Line Road, has been elected vice-president for basic research at the Merck, Sharp & Dohme Research Laboratories, a division of Merck & Co. He was formerly executive director of fundamental research for the division. Dr. Saret, who holds a Ph.D. from Princeton University, will be responsible for all basic research conducted by the laboratories in Rahway. He holds more than 100 patents in the fields of steroids and other organic compounds and is a consultant to the U.S. Public Health Service.

BUSINESS In Princeton

WE'RE ONE YEAR OLD in Princeton, that is, Karl D. Pettit & Company, 4 Nassau Street, plans to celebrate its first birthday on Nassau Street this month.

The brokerage firm, which has been in New York City for the past 34 years, handles the Knickerbocker Growth Fund and the Knickerbocker Fund.

The Pettit company has an additional reason for celebration besides the first birthday in Princeton because "Fundscope," the monthly magazine of mutual funds, has listed the Knickerbocker Growth Fund as one of the top 25 such funds in the country.

The 1965 "Fundscope" shows the Knickerbocker Growth Fund, with a gain of 42.3% over the previous year, ranked in the top 5% of all 229 funds in the $32 billion industry.

The Knickerbocker Fund, a balanced fund investing in bonds, preferred and common stocks, increased in value more than the Dow-Jones average of industrial common stocks only. The Dow-Jones Industrial Average showed a gain of 10.6%.

The "Fundscope" tally provides an unbiased estimate of the two Pettit mutual funds, with their assets totaling $22 million, plus about $10 million outstanding in contractual plans.

Karl D. Pettit is president of the company and a resident of Princeton since 1912, the year he was graduated from Cornell. His son, William D. Pettit, is executive vice president of Knickerbocker Securities, Inc., president in the counseling firm in charge of portfolio management and the research department.

Other directors include Ralph J. Mason of the law firm of Mason, Griffin and Moore, and Dr. C. R. Jolliffe, formerly of Princeton.

A booklet, "Outlook—1966," is available from the Karl D. Pettit offices at 4 Nassau.

CURVE GOES UP For Bank & Trust. In a year-end report to stockholders and the community, William R. Cooby, president of Princeton Bank and Trust, reported record earnings of $4.45 per share, compared with $3.98 for 1964.

Average daily deposit balances at the bank increased 10.6%: from $45,311,600 to $47,901,000. Of this increase, demand deposits accounted for $2,925,000.

Loans and mortgages at Princeton Bank increased from $24,422,889 to $26,856,008. Ten years ago, the mortgage-loan figure was $31% million.

In the trust department, 51 new accounts were opened during 1965 bringing the total to 425. The book value of assets (exclusive of corporate trusts) was $74,963,274 and the management fee of assets more than $115,000,000.

DEPOSITS MOVE UP At First National. Gross deposits at the First National Bank increased $49,448,192 in 1965 from $52,563,249 in 1964. Deposits increased $49,448,192 in 1965.

Ralph Mather, president of the bank, said in his annual report this week that the amount of interest paid to customers on time and savings accounts had also increased.

The increase Mr. Mather said, comes to 23% more than the previous year, for a total of $8,474,720.

Net operating earnings after taxes increased by 3%, or 15 cents per share, over the previous 12 months, Mr. Mather said. The bank's trust department maintained its steady growth pattern, Mr. Mather reported, as did operations at the East Nassau and West Windsor branches.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY. William D. Pettit is a partner in Karl D. Pettit & Co. and president of a graduate center for science and technology in New Jersey at its meeting on Monday. The luncheon is scheduled to begin at 12:15 in the Nassau Inn.

GRADUATE CENTER TOPIC For Chamber Committee. The Research and Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will discuss the potential of a graduate center for science and technology in New Jersey at its meeting on Monday. The luncheon is scheduled to begin at 12:15 in the Nassau Inn.

Leading the discussion will be Dr. J. O. Kessler of the RCA-Sarnoff Laboratories and a member of the Industry Committee. The meeting will center on the importance of graduate education to the research community.

The luncheon will be open to members of the Research and Development Committee and guests. Advance reservations are required and should be made in writing to the Chamber at 41 Palmer Square West or by telephoning 921-7676 no later than 10 a.m. on Monday.

Sturken, Helga Nergard, Carin Laughlin, Nancy O'Connor, Elizabeth Alford, George Ann Gillespie, Lucy McKiver, Helen Schwartz, Elsie Loret and Rowan Bonk. Different schools of thought and techniques are expressed, all vigorously.

Realistic landscapes are done by Elizabeth Alford, Margaret Bacon, and also Rowan Bonne, who, however, breaks into a more emotional, free style with broken color in "River Bank." "Cape Wharf" by Helen Schwartz is one of the strongest paintings in composition, contrast and paint quality.

A still life by Shirlee Loret is decorative and painted with rest. Helga Nergard exhibits an almost architectural drawing of "Old Nassau" which is a commentary on three new campus buildings. More typical of her energetic style is her fine woodcut, "Witherspoon Street."

Marie Sturken deals with that fascinating subject, the Rocky Hill quarry, which spells excitement, destruction and night-time mystery. Her rendering is forcefully painted in very simple terms. George Ann Gillespie's painting, "Indian Coolie" and her watercolor, "Flood on the Miconk," are full of character, each to its own subject, both active and intense in style and content.

Touch of Color. Lucy McKiver works in out and in abstract — with collage. "Bird's Eye View" is a collage of color and an activity appropriate to the idea. Bright spots of color in abstract patterns are given the show also by Carin Laughlin and Nancy O'Connor whose paintings are full of high-key pigments. "Still Life" by Kathleen, by Carin Laughlin is gay, even puerile as you study it, and a "Touch of Spring" by Nancy O'Connor is a real promise of the next season.

SPORTS In Princeton

TIGERS EARN THIN EDGE In TIGHT Basketball Race.
On Tuesday, March 1, Princeton plays an Ivy League basketball game at Pennsylvania and Columbia faces Cornell at Ithaca. It will be a distinct surprise if the outcome of the 1966 race does not hinge on one or possibly both of these games.

As the only two teams which have not lost at home, Princeton and Penn hold a distinct advantage over the other two. The Tigers, in their turn, have a slight edge over the Quakers, because they have a clear-cut victory over them and are the only unbeaten team in the standings.

It is to be, apparently, a race in which the also-rans will reach up to play a major part in the outcome. Seventh-place Brown topped Cornell at Ithaca a fortnight ago, and Princeton took possession of first place on Saturday because Yale trounced Columbia in New York, where the Lions had not previously lost this year. A schedule oddity now adds pressure on Cornell and Columbia: this Friday night, each must visit the team that last beat it, the Ithacans traveling to Providence and the Lions to New York.

Princeton, meanwhile, may also be in for trouble. If the Tigers forget, while lingering over the pleasure of having defeated Penn, that they were a scant 52-50 victor in their game here with Harvard on January 15, they will fall easy prey to the Crimson at Cambridge on Friday. Next night, they'll be at Hanover, and while it is difficult to see how they can have trouble with Dartmouth, the Indians did force Cornell into over time before it was there early last month.

Defense Tells the Story. In upsetting favor, Penn, 75 to 68, in Saturday's televised contest, Princeton achieved one of its more noteworthy triumphs in the sport. Over the years, there have been many outstanding victories recorded on the way to the 11 Ivy titles the Tigers have won, but the manner in which a team that had dismayed its followers with its total lack of take-charge ability dominated Saturday's action against one of the best teams in the country made the occasion memorable.

While a 13-point advantage by no means insurmountable, the outcome of the game was actually determined in the first ten minutes. At the half-way mark in the first period, the Tigers had 21 points and the visitors exactly 8—a factually small output for a team that had been averaging 78 points a game against its impressive opposition.

During that first half, which saw Princeton leave the court with a 37-22 advantage, the statistics reflected the defensive job that Bill van Breda Kolff's team had done on the losers. Stan Pawlak, who came into the contest with a 26-point average, was held to just 6 by the tight guarding of Captain Bob Haarlow. And with 6, Pawlak's was Penn's high scorer at the intermission.

The Quakers connected on no more than 35% of their shots, often being forced to take bad ones as the score and the clock began to run against them. Jarred by their misfortunes, they made only four of eight from the foul line.

Tigers Were Accurate. Meanwhile, Princeton had hit for 90% from the floor and seven for eight free throws—both vast improvements over its previous record. The victory, achieved, surprisingly, after a two-week layoff for exams, Den Rodenbach with 11 points was within two of his season's average and Bobby Brown with ten had already passed it. The victors' retained their domination long enough to have the outcome rank as a decisive triumph, even though Penn cut a 15-point deficit to 67-52 with less than four minutes to go to six—74-68 with 62 seconds left. The flurry was occasioned by a needed rest for Gary Walters, whose downcourt dribbling and field generalship was outstanding, and a flurry of shots by Pieske before he fouled out with 38 seconds to go. But of the 22 points the Penn star finally achieved, 10 came in the final four minutes with the outcome already sealed.

Rodenbach's 20 p a c e d Princeton, and the veteran Tiger forward must be wishing he could always play in the afternoon. On the only three occasions he has hit for 20 or more points in his three year-career (once against Navy and twice against Penn), his star roles have been given during matinee performances.

Sophomore John Haarlow followed with 17, one of his field goals spinning in inside the rim for a longer period of time than any lacinated one unlocked may ever have seen before. The SRO crowd roared for fully five seconds while the ball actually seemed to gain momentum in its dramatic orbit before eventually falling through.

sophomore Joe Heister, second only to Bill Bradley in freshman scoring totals, was a distinct factor in the contest. Showing fine all-around ability, he hit for three of four field goal attempts and converted both foul tries. The eight points he made were more than the Tigers' margin of victory.

With another sophomore, Dave Lawver, currently out with an ankle injury, Heister and John Bradley give Princeton more trench strength than it has had within memory. Without Bill Bradley to dominate the league, the remaining four weeks figure to be a dog-dog affair, in which upsets are likely to play an even greater part than from previous seasons.

For a 2 o'clock contest, with the Tigers looking for their first triumph over the Crimson since 1953.

Couch John Whiten's skaters picked up another point in the standings on Saturday when they played Dartmouth to a 4-4 overtime tie. They had a 3-1 lead midway through the second period, but could not hang on and had to settle for a draw.

Cam McGowan's first-period goal got them out in front, and after the Green had drawn even early in the second round Terry Peterman and Mike Seager scored to put the Tigers two up. Dartmouth cut the margin by one but still trailed after the final regulation period. With less than four minutes to go, the visitors deduced the score for the third time, only to see Bert Bruner's drive from the left alley hit the right corner of their cage at 17:17. As soon as it did, a face-off in the Princeton end of the rink Dartmouth withdrew its goalie and the move paid off.

Bill Smoyer clinched a power play by jamming the puck past goalie Graeme Plinders to bring Dartmouth even. There were two minutes and 45 seconds left, but the teams battled through that and the ten-minute overtime session without further scoring.

In three games this winter, the two teams played to a last-ditch draw. All three went into overtime, Dartmouth winning the first and Princeton the second by identical 5-4 scores. The 4-4 tie then ended the season's rivalry.

Together, these three combined for 75 of the 105 tallied against PHS. It gets outstanding rebounding from 6-4 Joe Kostyga under the boards. It is, in short, tough to beat, and to do it PHS will have to come up with an all-round performance.

On the other hand, coach Jim Winho's Spartans should find it isn't going to be as easy this time. Hines is no longer the entire PHS offensive. Since the Steinet game, Ken Lyons has averaged 16.8 points per game and Tom Wood, 15.8. In Princeton's last outing against Ewing, they combined for 44 points.

At Trenton Tuesday, Tuesday evening the Blue and White will get a second chance against Trenton, 75-56 conqueror of PHS in December. That defeat was Princeton's first, after winning the first three. Game time will be at 8 on the TBS court.

Sports in Princeton

This has been Trenton's worst season since coach Fred Price took over in 1953. Its county record is 2-6 and everybody is enjoying repaying the Tornadoes in kind for past defeats.
A chance to top Trenton doesn't come too often. PHS should win this one and if it doesn't, this season may be remembered as the one in which PHS had two golden chances to defeat Trenton and blew them both.

A game the Little Tigers came close to squandering but didn't was the meeting Friday with Ewing. PHS took a 25-19 first quarter lead over the visiting Blue Devils, saw them first chip away at this and then go ahead 46-41 near the end of the third period, before it came on to win, 79-74.

Hines tossed in a pair of go-ahead baskets to give PHS 53-50 lead. "Scratchy" finished with 25 and began the week needing 85 more to reach the 1000 mark.

Three other Little Tigers hit double figures to account for all but two of Princeton's points. Tom Wood relayed and his best game ever with 24—tops among all PHS scorers—Ken Lyons made 20 and 5-7 Ed McEwen collected 10.

HITS CAREER HIGH: Tom Wood, 6-4 center for the Little Tigers, made 24 points, a career high, in his last game, Saturday, to top his previous effort by five. He is a junior.

PHS SKATERS WIN
Over Lawrenceville Jayvees.

A Princeton High School hockey team, minus its starting first line and its high scoring defenseman, Paul Rice, defeated the Lawrenceville school jayvees Saturday, 3-2, at the Lawrenceville rink.

Scoring for the Little Tigers were senior Steve Pearson, center Bobby Linder with an assist from John Patton, and wing Peter Dimpfel with an assist from Pearson.

Coach George Thompson's Blue and White squad will be idle until February 11 when it opposes Lawrenceville at Baker Rink; its record is now 2-3-1.

JAYVEE MEET FRIDAY
At Lawrenceville School. The annual Mercer County indoor track and field meet, sponsored by the Lawrence Jayvees, Trenton High School and the Trenton Times, will be held Friday at 4 at Lawrenceville School's Lavine Field House. The defending champions, Princeton High School, has won the event for the past two years.

Other schools competing will be Trenton, Notre Dame, Steiwer, Hamilton, Zwing, St. Anthony and Reynolds Junior High. Tickets may be purchased at Princeton High or at the door.

PHS WRESTLERS WIN
To Even Record at 3-2. The leading Princeton High School wrestling team, in its first year of competition under the guidance of Tom Murray, won its third meet in six starts last week, defeating visiting Morrisville, Pa. high school, 28-20.

Phil Leaman in the heavyweight class and Joe Harding, 168-pound class, registered the win for the Little Tigers. Other Little Tiger winners: Stewart Bell, 148-pound class; Ross Beyer, 136-lb. and Jim Severson, 130-lb. Hank Wilkinson battled his opponent to a tie in the 115-lb. division.

The Blue and White will engage Notre Dame next in back-to-back meets. On Friday afternoon at 4, PHS will journey to the Irish gym and the latter will return the visit Wednesday at 4.

3 GAMES, 3 UPSETS
In Industrial League. All three of last week's games in the YMCA Research and Industrial Basketball League ended in upsets: Hospital turned on ETS; RCA won its second straight, with Van Nostrand the victim; and Western Electric hit a shockingly easy time in upsetting Film Center.

Probably the biggest upsets were Hospital's 64-57 victory over ETS, Ed Riddick and George Tucker each hit for 31 points for the victors. With tall Clarence Gilbert sidelined with a hip injury, ETS' hopes rested on Paul Hartman.

Hartman maintained his average by dropping in 24 points but it wasn't enough. The losers protested the game, claiming Tucker was ineligible.

Electric, while Tony Maccione and John Smithson were the whole offense for the losers, each collecting 18.
After losing its first seven, RCA captured its second win in a row, a 56-40 defeat over Van Nostrand. The losers led throughout until the fourth period but couldn't hold it. RCA's John Dunn (18 points) and Van Nostrand's Dave Gallagher (23) were the game's high scorers.

The standings:

	W.	L.	Pts.
ETS	7	2	778
Film Center	7	2	778
West, Electric	3	4	467
Hospital	3	6	333
Van Nostrand	2	7	222
RCA	2	7	222

Heading the list was Steve Kraft, ranked No. 1 in the boys' 14 and under division. Last year, Steve shared in the Canadian National Doubles title, the New Jersey singles and doubles and, more recently, the Mexican Junior singles championship. He was a finalist in the Eastern Pennsylvania championships.

David Kusinoff, outstanding varsity player at Princeton High School, received a high ranking in the 18 and under bracket, while Jack McCarthy and Shawn Tully received honorable mention.

The largest number of honors was won by boys in the 12 and under group where Kevin McCarthy was ranked No. 4. Others were: Robert Kraft, John O'Donohue, Michael Glouchevitch, Samuel Lamar, William Janney and Steve Sar. The seven rankings from a town prompted a special commendation by the Middle States executive committee.

BOATING COURSE SET
By Princeton Fiddle. A basic seamanship and safe boat-handling course will be conducted by Princeton Fiddle 47 United States Coast Guard Auxiliary at the YMCA starting Tuesday evening, February 27. The two-day sessions will run from 8 to 10 p.m. for ten consecutive Thursdays.

The course will cover anchors, charts and compass, lines and their care, navigation and all aspects of safe boating. A must for new boat owners, the course will also serve as a refresher to those having boats because there have been changes in boating regulations.

Interests are necessary after the first evening at 7 or 7:45 or by calling the Y at 924-4252. Those who complete the course and successfully pass the test will be issued a certificate from the U.S. Treasury Department.

HUN LOSSES GROUND
In Penn-League football, "it" school basketball coach Dave Leece was not referring to the inclement weather but to the double loss his team sustained at the hands of Penn-League opponents.

On Saturday, Hun was defeated, 68 to 59, by the Spartans of Solebury, and on Wednesday by a strong Perkiomen five, 80 to 55. The two setbacks lowered Hun's league record to 2-4.

"We didn't shoot very well in either game," commented Leece, but contributing just as much to defeat was the loss of Hun's high-scoring captain, Mike Miller. A virus infection sidelined Miller for the Perkiomen contest and while he did play against Solebury, Leece reported he was obviously still feeling the effects of the infection. His 14 points was 11 points below his average.

"Add the 25 points Miller scores and we didn't do too badly even against Perkiomen," said Leece. Jim MacLeod was high scorer for Hun in both contests, collecting 16 against Solebury—a team defeated earlier by Hun—and 19 against Perkiomen.

Despite the two losses, Leece is not counting Hun out of anything yet. "Every team has lost at least twice," he said. "I think it will be close all the way."

A healthy Hun squad will try to come back Friday at 3 against its arch-rival, Pennington Seminary gymnasium. On Wednesday, Hun travels to Nightstown for a non-league battle with Peddie.

the Tri-County Firemen's League. Last week's co-holder with Mercer No. 3, Princeton No. 1, is tied for second with Rocky Hill.

Each is two games back with 18 wins apiece. K.F.D. and Plainsboro are knitted for third place with 14 wins each.

As a group the firemen were not last week but none was warmer than two Princeton policemen, Township PI, Mike Kopoliner rolled a 253—the high single game posted at the Princeton Recreation Inn—and Borough PI, Doug Watson was not far behind with a 242.

Two fine series were fashioned by Bob Richardson and Wally Brown. Richardson reg. a 182-226-223-531 and Brown a 182-226-210-822. Other high scores: Paul Terecky, 218-236; Ken Sherwin, 223; Ken Kell, 203-221; Norm Luck, 219; and Mel Tindall, 176-190-241-607.

Had Al Hibbard's first game matched his latter two, he would have rolled a 700 series in the B League. Al's scores were 168-216-224-538. Joe Bialino and Ed Hughes reached 600 and 603, 2-213 representing the best game for each. Ernie Hunt had a 237, Rudy Lehnert, 211; Jack Crawford and Frank Middall both 203, and Jack Lacey, 202-208.

There has been a thinning out in the team standings. Instead of six teams being tied for first place, there are now two—Blasiter and Ivy Inn. Two games back with eight wins each are Renwick and Key Shop, while Walker-Gordon, Pete and Mike's and Maul Electric are bunched for third place with six wins apiece.

There were 13 200-plus

FREEHOLD STOPPED

By Little Tigers 78-64
Visiting Freehold High School was thwarted Tuesday afternoon in its attempt to reach the 500 mark. The Colonials 13-7, outscored PHS in the final period, 22-16, but fell short, 70 to 64.

Willie James continues to take giant steps toward reaching the 1,000 point mark —
a goal he should attain three games from now — by scoring 22 points. It was the eighth time in 14 games that "Scratchy" has scored more than 20 points for the Little Tigers. The little and agile Tiger, who has all the moves and set — also led the team in assists with eight.

Richi Volz came off the bench and proceeded to hit on five of six attempts from the floor — most from the outside
— to tally 11, the same number made by Ken Lyons. Playmaker Eddie McEwen added
eight more and despite his 5-6 height was second in the rebounding department with eight.

Tom Wood, continues to improve in rebounding and shooting. The 6-6 center grabbed 13 of the 34 rebounds picked off by the Blue and White and hit for 10 points. These five accounted for all the ETS scoring.

From the floor it was a close match. PHS outscored the visitors by the slimmest of margins, 30 to 29. From the free throw line, however, the Little Tigers were much superior, sinking 10 of 12 attempts, while Freehold converted only six of 16 chances.

The home team seemed to be safely in front with 23-0 to go, leading 67 to 53. With 1:14 to go, Freehold cut out that to 67-59 and PHS parlians became to squirm. Hines made Princeton's final three points
— all from the foul line.

ST. PAUL'S WINS IT

Blessed Sacramento Victim,
St. Paul's, in first place in the southern division of the Trenton CYO league, and Blessed Sacramento, in first place in the northern division,
tangled last week with St.
Paul's finishing on top, 36 to
23. The victory increased St.
Paul's league record to 11-1
and 10-3 overall.

Nike Masque of St. Paul's scored 14 points, the only player on either side to hit double figures in the defense-stressed contest. Mickey Chapman made eight for the winners and Peter Sweeney and Harry Norton added six each.
St. Paul's led 13-7, after the first period and was never headed.

TIGERS TRIM ST. NICK'S

As Eight Players Score, It was share and share alike for the Princeton hockey team
Tuesday night as eight different players scored in the Tigers 9-4 triumph over St. Nicholas Club.

The victors led all the way,
taking a 5-2 lead before the first period ended and coasting thereafter. Mickey Michele, who held a substitute's role as a goalie here for three years, was in the cage for Nick's, and had problems

throughout the evening.
Former Princetonians Harry Bulon-Miller and Johnny Con-were among those who scored for the losers. To keep honor on the Cook family, Steve Cook, son of the Orange and goals went to John Balyer, Charlie McMillan, Mike Peterson, Gordy Gladman, Mike Spence, Tom Rawls and Frank Fuller, the latter up from the joyce for the session.

News Of The CHURCHES

MORMONS RAISE FUNDS By Syd Planning. This spring, the sod-planting crew began work around a new building may well be members of the Princeton branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints raising money for their planned $150,000 chapel on Princeton Pike, near Mercer Bridge.

Began as an experimental project last year, members raised a net of $4,020 by sod laying and an additional $422 by housepainting. "We think that inside of two years we'll have $30,000, half of our share of the cost, and we'll be ready to start building the chapel," Lloyd McCurdy, clerk of the church, reports.

"We have tried a variety of projects, such as assembling a device for golf carts, cake sales, house painting. The most successful has been to lay sod at the very large apartments and developments. The nurseries cannot afford to keep a big crew available. Through the church, they can call in help on short notice. Our members learn quickly and work hard."

The idea came from the branch president and head of the building committee, Lynn Johnson, an agricultural engineer at Princeton. Tar Farms The goal for 1966 is to earn $12,000 laying sod.

The Princeton unit has 60 families meet on Sundays at the YM-YWCA for worship services and Bible classes. Physical Richard Glenn is Robert Burns at 8 p.m. on

MORMON CHAPEL Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints who met for Sunday worship at the YM-YWCA, plan to construct a chapel on Princeton Pike just beyond the Mercer Bridge. The church, to be built in two stages, will provide seating for 500 plus 150 Sunday school pupils. William M. Thompson, of Princeton is the architect.

counselor and Randall Jones, a Thursday, and at 11 on Wednesday will address the study body. Visitors are welcome. Dean Miller was educated at Glasgow and Heidelberg Universities. He has served at Princeton for the past 10 years. Among his publications are "Prayers for Parish Worship" and "Sex Equality and the Eldership."

CALVIN IS TOPIC Of Seminary Series. German theologian Otto Weber of Guelph University will give the 1966 Warfield Lectures at Princeton Seminary next week. He will discuss "Calvin's Doctrine of the Word." The lectures will be given at 7:45 p.m. Monday through Friday, and also at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday. In Miller Chapel. The public is welcome.

TO HEAR DEAN MILLER At 8 p.m. The Rev. Colin F. Miller, dean of the chapel at Hamilton College, will speak next week at Westminster Choir College chapel. He will give readings from physical Richard Glenn is Robert Burns at 8 p.m. on

The Great Outdoors. Nearly 3500 square feet of l... make this wonderful old Farm House just the place for a Big Family. A pair of lovely square rooms flank the most graceful center hall we've ever seen and behind them off the kitchen,
 there's a cozy little room with fireplace and an all-purpose room with stairs, seven bedrooms and two baths. The outdoors is great, too - nearly five acres and a huge barn
 some work needed just off the Great Road. $43,500

Come On Down to Carnegie's shores
 and even winter's hushed antics will merely amuse and entertain as you warm your toes before one of two fireplaces and walk through threempane window walls to savor hills
 your floodlit woods and swirls across the frozen lake. Luxurious three bedroom Contemporary has paneled living room and study, large dining room, equipped kitchen, two full baths and the most beautiful hall acre in Princeton Township.
 $74,500

Giving Up a Big House? But determined to sacrifice either elegance nor marvellous family pieces? This little house with its sixteen by thirty foot living dining room is just made for you. Furthermore it has a real entrance hall, compact no-fuss no-bother kitchen, study, guest room and hall downstairs. On the second floor, there's a two-room Master Suite with fireplace and handsome bath. Incomparable Western Section location $80,000

It's Often Worth Going The Extra Mile. To find a really different house. This custom-built five-bedroom Colonial may be just the thing to dispel your house-hunting ennui. Living room and study each have fireplaces. Dining room has one ready to be opened. Fully equipped u-shaped kitchen. Family room with adjoining lavatory and laundry. Screened balconies off master bedroom and living room. Covered terrace. Many charming details. $42,500
